Charleston, Savannah & Jekyll Island Itinerary

Oct 17 Day 1 Our first destination on this wonderful 6-day tour is charming Charleston, SC. Experience Southern Hospitality at it's best. Check into our Charleston area hotel for 2 nights and then enjoy a dinner cruise in Charleston Harbor. D

Oct 18 Day 2 Begin our day with a guided motorcoach tour of Charleston. This historic city has survived the Civil War, fires and hurricanes. Free time this afternoon to visit those wonderful shops in the old cotton exchange. Dinner tonight at Bubba Gump Shrimp Co. After dinner we have included passes to the 36th annual "Charleston Home & Garden Tour" featuring private homes and gardens that are open to the public only once a year. These homes and gardens are beyond description! B D

Oct 19 Day 3 A visit to Charleston is not complete without seeing one of its stately plantations. We'll spend the morning at Magnolia Plantation and Gardens before departing for Savannah, GA. Accommodations for the next 3 nights are in the heart of Savannah's Historic district. Dinner this evening at Mrs. Wilkes Dining Room, for a unique family-style dining experience. B D

Oct 20 Day 4 All aboard the Savannah Trolley for a fun and fact filled tour of historic Savannah. Your trolley pass will give you the freedom to hop-on hop-off all day. This afternoon we will visit the Mercer-Williams House. Dinner tonight at Paula Deen's famous Lady & Son's restaurant. B D

Oct 21 Day 5 Just a short ride from Savannah is Jekyll Island... once the winter retreat of America's most wealthy families back before the railroad extended into Florida. We'll tour the island and some of the winter cottages by tram. Return to Savannah and dine tonight at the famous Pirate House Restaurant founded in 1753. B D

Oct 22 Day 6 Depart Savannah for our return flight home from Charleston. En route we will make an extra special stop in Beaufort, SC – "Queen of the Carolina Sea Islands". Stroll down the streets or take a carriage ride, Beaufort is in the heart of the "Low Country". B
