A DOWNEAST ADVENTURE

Sept. 17 – 19, 2012

MONDAY – SEPT. 17 - Depart Enfield at 7:45 AM aboard a comfortable, air conditioned tour bus with a restroom and movies on board. During this 3-Day late Summer Downeast adventure we'll visit many scenic places on the Maine Coast traveling by bus, train, trolley and boat. In Thomaston we'll pause at the unique Maine Prison Store where the inmates produce all sorts of Maine souvenirs. Lodging for two nights will be provided at Cedar Crest Resort in Camden. The rooms at Cedar Crest are nice, the staff is very friendly and the food is exceptional. A Wine & Cheese Reception is included followed by DINNER at Cedar Crest's popular Elm Street Grill and Lobster is one of the choices on tonight's menu.

TUESDAY – SEPT. 18 - Full BREAKFAST cooked to order included at Cedar Crest and we'll pause to do a little shopping in the pretty harbor town of Camden before we set out for the land the natives call "Downeast". We'll follow the coast to Mount Desert Island and Acadia National Park. There will be free time for the shops of Bar Harbor and this afternoon we'll tour Bar Harbor and Acadia National Park. You'll see scenic spots like the Summit of Cadillac Mountain, The Porcupine Islands, Sieur de Monts Springs, Thunder Hole and Eagle Lake. Your Acadia guide will provide interesting commentary and stories about the area. A Lobster DINNER will be served at a waterfront restaurant in Bar Harbor. After all, this is where the lobsters come from. But there are other choices as well. And for dessert there's fresh baked blueberry pie.

WEDNESDAY – SEPT. 19 Full hot BREAKFAST is again included before we bid farewell to Cedar Crest. In Rockland we'll board The Maine Line of the Maine Eastern Railroad. Our 2 hour train ride will take down the coast to Wiscasset, past charming seaside villages, picturesque settings, tidewater wildlife and the time honored sights of Midcoast Maine. Our next stop is Boothbay Harbor. There are many shops and sights here and during our visit we'll sail from the town wharf on a refreshing Harbor and Islands Cruise. We'll see lobster boats and sailing yachts, marinas and marinelife, lighthouses and the rocky cliffs and islands that dot the picturesque Boothbay Coast. Return home at 7:00 PM.
