

TOWN OF ENFIELD ADA POLICY

The Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) prohibits discrimination and ensures equal opportunity for persons with disabilities in employment, State and local government services, public accommodations, commercial facilities, and transportation. Persons who feel they have not received equal opportunity for access to local government services may file a complaint with the ADA Coordinator

The ADA prohibits discrimination in all employment practices, including job application procedures, hiring, firing, advancement, compensation, training, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment. It applies to recruitment, advertising, tenure, layoff, leave, fringe benefits, and all other employment-related activities.

The ADA applies to a person who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major activities of life (such as walking, standing, or breathing). Examples include individuals who have physical conditions such as epilepsy, diabetes, severe forms of arthritis, and hypertension, as well as individuals with mental impairment such as major depression, bipolar (manic-depressive) disorder, and mental retardation.

An individual with a disability must be able to perform the essential functions of the job, with or without an accommodation, in order to be protected by the ADA. The individual must also be able to satisfy the job requirements for educational background, employment experience, skills, licenses, and any other job-related qualification standards.

The ADA makes it unlawful to discriminate in all employment practices, including recruitment, hiring, firing, pay, promotions, job assignments, training, leave, layoffs, benefits, etc. In addition, the ADA prohibits an employer from retaliating against an applicant or employee for asserting his or her rights under the ADA.

The Town of Enfield will make sure that people with disabilities:

- Have an equal opportunity to apply for and to work in jobs for which they are qualified
- Have an equal opportunity to be promoted
- Have equal access to benefits of employment that are offered to other employees, and
- Are not harassed because of their disability.
- Have equal access to Town of Enfield Services

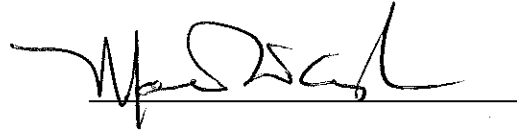

Town of Enfield – ADA Policy

Further, an employer is also required to provide a reasonable accommodation if a person with a disability needs one in order to apply for a job, perform a job, or enjoy benefits equal to those offered to other employees. An employer does not have to provide any accommodation that would pose an undue hardship.

Further, the Town of Enfield is also required to provide a reasonable accommodation if a person with a disability needs one in order to participate in Town services. The Town of Enfield does not have to provide any accommodation that would pose an undue hardship.
